Contract Review Services

Additionally, policyholders may seek contract review assistance through this program. Contract reviews are limited to an insurability review, focused on Scope of Work, Standard of Care, Warranties /Guarantees and Indemnification language. Contract review requests should be submitted to contractreviews@tmhcc.com. Please note: The number of contract reviews permitted during a policy period are within the sole discretion of CPLG. Additional services may be negotiated separately by the policyholder and the law firm at terms agreed upon with each other and outside part of the services offered under this program.

If your situation requires a more in-depth consultation or retention of an attorney which is outside the scope of the Risk Management/Pre-Claim Assistance Hotline Program, the attorney will discuss your options and billing rates with you. Without exception, services are only available while a policy is in force.*

Importantly, you should consult your Tokio Marine HCC – Cyber & Professional Lines Group insurance policy for all terms and conditions relating to coverage, including for instructions regarding how to tender a claim. Contact with one or more of the attorneys at any of the firms providing risk management counseling or pre-claim assistance does not satisfy, nor alleviate, the claim reporting requirements contained within your insurance policy. Should you have questions or concerns regarding a claim, potential claim, or notice of circumstances under your insurance policy, please contact your insurance broker or advisor. Tokio Marine HCC – Cyber & Professional Lines Group also makes no representation as to whether contact with one or more of the above firms establishes an attorney-client relationship or the existence of attorney client privilege.
